INTRODUCTORY

HEREWITH is presented our fifth edition of the Alton City Directory for 1906-1907, which we feel confident the public will find the equal, if not the superior, of its predecessors. We trust to the judgment of the citizens of Alton as to its correctness and feel assured they will commend it.

The City is growing rapidly, not only in population, but in everything that goes to make a beautiful and prosperous municipality. Its citizenship is of a high order and the right kind of people are always made welcome.

The total population of the three Alton's (Alton proper, Upper and North Alton) exceeds 25,000. We have made a change from our former methods by including all names under the one heading, such as (U. A.) Upper Alton, (N. A.) North Alton. These will be easily understood by the resident and this does away with having to look in several parts of the book for names.

We are under obligations to the public-spirited business and professional men who so cheerfully contributed to the success of this work, as well as to all who so courteously extended their aid to our canvassers.
